Eighty Dollars Reward.

RAN-AWAY from the Subscriber, at Newtown, Chester Ferry, Queen Anne's county, state of Maryland, the following negroes, viz. a woman named Nanny, went away on the 23d January, 1799, and took with her a Mulatto female child, about two years old, named Arianna. Nanny is a dark yellow negro, about five feet four or five inches high, remarkably handsome for a negro. Her cloathing unknown as she took a variety of good cloaths with her—she went off with a negro fellow, named Peter, and calls himself Peter Simpson, he is the property of a certain William Bowers of Talbot county, state as above, who has advertised one hundred dollars reward for him. Peter is a stout well made yellow fellow, about 6 feet one inch high, is a tolerable good Carpenter. Nanny passes for his wife, but her real husband is named Bob, who belongs to her master. It is probable they are in the neighbourhood of Salem in the Jersies, as they were there in October last, and by information, Peter had built himself an house to live in, between Ruin Bridge and Gold Town; it is likely they may have changed their names and may have passes, as Peter can write a middling hand; it is probable Nanny has another child, as it was thought she was in a pregnant state when she went away.

The noted Ferry man Charles, who calls himself Charles Rodney; he went off on the 18th of February last, he is a dark mulatto, about five feet eight or nine inches high, about forty years old, stoops in his shoulders when he walks, a scar on his head very perceivable—he took with him a small bay mare about 4 or 5 years years old, her mane trimmed and bob tail'd; his cloathing unknown, as he carried off a variety of cloaths; it is probable he has changed his name, as he is a very artful, sensible fellow, he can read tolerably well; it is likely he may hire himself to drive a waggon, being well acquainted with that business, driving for the army during the war; he also perhaps may have a pass.

The above reward will be given for the aforesaid two negroes, viz. Nanny and Charles, if taken out of the state, or twenty dollars for Nanny and child, if taken in this state, & 20 do. Charles if taken in this state and secured in jail, so as I may get them again. If brought home all reasonable charges shall be paid by me.

JOHN QUIMBY.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN-AWAY from Spring Forge, in York County, a negro man, named ISAAC, otherwise CUDJO, about 21 years old, the property of Robert Coleman, Esq. He is about 5 feet 8 inches high, has a blemish in his eyes, more white in them than common, by trade a Ferryman; had on and took with him a drab coloured broad cloth coat, almost new, a sailors jacket and pantaloons printed fancy cord, a swansdown striped under jacket; a rorum hat; one fine and one coarse shirt; one muslin handkerchief, sprigged, two ditto striped border, a blue Persian under jacket and two pair cotton stockings. Whoever takes up said negro and lodges him in any jail in this or any of the neigbouring states shall have the above reward or reasonable expences if brought home.

JOHN BRIEN.

Spring Forge, October 23, 1799.

N. B. As said negro formerly lived in Chester county, it is probable he may return there.

A SEASONABLE ARTICLE.

JUST RECEIVED,

By WILLIAM Y. BIRCH,

STATIONER,

No. 17 South Second Street,

HAMILTON's ELIXIR,

A SOVEREIGN REMEDY

For Colds, obstinate Coughs, Catarrhs, Asthmas, Sore-throats, and approaching Consumptions.

THOUSANDS are too well acquainted with the nature and effects of empirical medicines daily offered for the cure of the above complaints; dear bought experience has taught them that oily and heating medicines joined with strong opiates (or sleepy drugs) repeated doses of which, flatter and deceive the patient for the present. By procuring momentary ease; experience, I say, has taught thousands that the common opiates and balsams, as they are called, finally aggravate every disorder of the breast and lungs in their most distressing symptoms; that they load the stomach and impair the digestion, inflame the whole system, increase the difficulty of breathing, and excite fever.—But the qualities of this valuable discovery are evinced by perfectly opposite effects. A SINGLE TRIAL WILL PROVE that it restores the determination of the fluids to the surface of the body, and brings on the common, healthful perspiration; that it dislodges and evacuates the tough, viscid phlegm, or mucus, strengthens the weakened vessels of the lungs, sheathes the acrimonious humours which irritate the lungs, and finally discharges them. Thus striking at the root of the disorder, the symptoms are of course, effectually and permanently conquered, the reverse of common medicines, which weaken the constitution and give strength to the disorder, for the sake of moderating for the present, some of its painful effects.

TO PARENTS

Who may have Children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH.

This discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorder to which children are liable; the Elixir is so perfectly agreeable and the dose so small, that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Dr. HAMILTON's

Genuine Essence and Extract of

MUSTARD.

For Rheumatisms, Gout, Palsey, Sprains, &c. a great number of attested cures may be seen at the place of sale. Dr. Hamilton's Grand Restorative for constitutions debilitated by intemperance of any kind; and for the cure of Nervous Complaints, Inward Weakness, Obstinate Gleets, Fluor Albus in women, &c.

Hamilton's justly celebrated Worm Lozenges, the infallible Itch Ointment, Dr. Leroux's Indian Vegetable Specific for Venereal Complaints, Ague and Fever Drops which had never failed effecting a cure, Dr. Hahn's Antibilious Pill, ditto Corn Plaister, the Persian Lotion for the face and skin, Gowland's Lotion, Church's Cough Drops, Anderson's Pills,

THE DAMASK LIP SALVE

Is recommended (particularly to the Ladies) as an elegant and pleasant preparation for chopped and sore lips, and every blemish and inconvenience occasioned by colds, fevers, &c. speedily restoring a beautiful rosy colour and delicate softness to the lips.

THE RESTORATIVE POWDER

FOR THE TEETH AND GUMS.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, absorbing all that acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

☞ Those who wish to procure the medicines genuine, must apply ONLY as above.

Wholesale purchasers will receive a liberal allowance by application to LEE & Co. Baltimore, who have obtained the general agency for the United States.

The Year 1800 is arrived!

UNION TAVERN,

In George-Town, upon the Potomak, is

FOR SALE,

Upon the premiſes, on the firſt Monday in May next.

THIS Tavern was built by the ſubſcription of a number of gentlemen as a neceſſary and uſeful improvement to the town—It coſt 26000 dollars in the year 1796 when materials and workmanſhip were much cheaper than at this time. The terms of ſubſcription were that it ſhould be ſold to the higheſt bidder on the day above mentioned.

It is a handſome, ſubſtantial brick building, of three ſtories, fronting ſixty feet on the moſt public ſtreet in the town, and running back ſixty three feet upon a wide and convenient ſtreet—The houſe is admirably calculated for a tavern. It contains upon the firſt floor four large rooms, one of them 30 by 20 feet and another 23 by 20, beſides a large bar and dreſſing room, upon the ſecond floor is an elegant aſſembly room, 60 by 30 feet, and three convenient lodging rooms. Upon the third floor are ten excellent lodging rooms—the garrat admits of a diviſion of ten more. There is alſo a good kitchen and commodious cellars ſufficient for ſuch a houſe. Paſſages and croſs paſſages interſect the houſe in ſuch a manner as to make each room private.

There are ſtables ſufficient for the accommodation of fifty horſes, with convenient ſheds for carriages—attached to the building are three lots of 60 feet by 120 each, which front on three ſtreets, and in the back yard and not 20 yards from the kitchen is a copious and never failing ſpring of moſt excellent running water.

The nature of improvements and their convenience to the city of Waſhington muſt render this property a moſt deſirable acquiſition to any perſon who may wiſh to carry on a tavern upon an extenſive ſcale. The immediate removal of the government of the United States muſt receive to it full and complete cuſtom.

The terms of ſale are, one third in caſh—one third in 120 days and the other third in 240 days, to be ſecured by approved notes negotiable at the Bank of Columbia or at either of the Banks in Baltimore, poſſeſſion to be given on the day of ſale and a perfect title made clear, of all incumbrances, on the laſt payment being made.

MAP OF NEW-JERSEY.

THE commiſſioners appointed for the purpoſe of circulating ſubſcription papers, to the propoſed plan of procuring an accurate Map of New-Jerſey, immediately after their appointment tranſmitted printed copies of the plan to various perſons in the ſeveral counties of this ſtate, and in the cities of New York and Philadelphia, and ſince that time, through the medium of the public prints, have requeſted the gentlemen entruſted with thoſe papers, to return the number of ſubſcribers by them reſpectively procured, to James Salter, eſq. at Trenton, on or before the 6th day of February laſt. The number of ſurſcriptions received, not amounting to two thouſand, the commiſſioners did not conceive themſelves authorized to fix a day for the meeting of the company; nevertheleſs being of opinion from reſpectable information, that the actual ſubſcriptions are nearly, if not fully, adequate to the complete organization of the company, if they could be aſcertained by regular returns, and being convinced that a trifling degree of exertion, on the part of the perſons holding the ſubſcription liſts, would enable them to carry the intention of the ſubſcribers into effect, they have by the unanimous advice and conſent of the ſubſcribers, whom they have been able to conſult, fixed on the 14th day of May next, being the 2d day of the ſitting of the ſupreme court, for a meeting of the ſubſcribers at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at the State Houſe in Trenton, for the purpoſe of electing five Truſtees and a Treaſurer, if the number of ſubſcriptions ſhould be ſufficient, or in any event to determine on the meaſures neceſſary to ſecure the attainment of an object ſo uſeful to the ſtate.

From the univerſal approbation exhibited by their fellow-citizens, at the commencement of this undertaking, it was to be expected that the Subſcriptions returned would have enſured its immediate execution, and the commiſſioners are purſuaded if proper attention is paid to the procuring of ſubſcriptions, to their punctual return at the time fixed for the meeting, and to the attendance of the ſubſcribers, either in perſon or by proxy, that no farther delay will take place in commencing the operations of the company, in time for their execution during the courſe of the enſuing ſummer.

NASH'S GHOST.

As at F's Hotel lie-ing,
In the ſoug, blue-chamber ſtor'd,
Demmocratic chiefs, defying
Light, their curſt libations pour'd

Till in fancy great and glorious,
From their country's ſudden doom,
Our cauſe is ſure, they ſhout victorious,
Cries for Mammoth rend the room.

On a ſudden, ſhrilly ſounding,
Hideous yells and ſhrieks were heard,
When each heart with dread confounding,
Grieſly forms of Ghoſts appear'd.

All in galling irons ſhrouded,
Which for winding-ſheets they wore,
Haggard looks, by treaſons clouded,
Marks of deep contrition bore.

On them gleam'd the lamp's blue luſtre,
When grim Robbins' haggard ſhade
His fiends of blood was ſeen to muſter
And the murd'rous troop array'd.

Through the drunken crowd he hied him,
Froth as chairman ſat enthron'd
And, his flitting ſhades beſide him,
Theſe commanding accents groan'd:

"Liſten to my aweful ſtory
"(I'm the murderer Naſh, he cries)
"Fool, that think'ſt to purchaſe glory
"By impeachment of the wiſe.

"Pickering's long-hoped-for ruin
"Though your heart it now may cheer,
"Think of juſtice crime ſubduing,
"And you'll mix your hope with fear.

"See theſe ſtrangled, clotted ſpectres,
"Wandering thro' the midnight gloom,
"Reading Jacobinic lectures
"Even from the ſilent tomb.

"Theſe thy ſoul with terror chilling
"Once were Patriots ſuch as you
(Each his rope with anguiſh thrilling, Snakes, while burns the lamp more blue.)

"Some a ſeaſon ſhun'd the halter,
"Join their forfeit necks to ſave,
"Secure in lawleſs crimes to ſaulter,
"And to find a peaceful grave.

"See in the ſprightly cutter's dungeon,
How Naſh's ſoaring ſpirit lay!
Nathleſs they knew Ned Froth would plunge on,
"And talk what brains he had, away.

"How beneath the pow'r of juſtice,
Tandy, Tone, blaſpheming fell;
"While the reſt of our accurſt race
"Soon muſt ſleep, to wake in Hell!

"O! that with worthier hearts uniting
"I in my country's cauſe had ſhone,
"Had died conſpirant rebels fighting,
"And nobly prop'd my ſov'reigns throne!

"But ſoft, I ſcent the gales of morning!
"Tin Gallat, Blinkynic and Ned,
Pray heed, betimes, my earneſt warning
"Ere you, like me, hang by the head!

"Now in hotteſt Hell-fire roaſting,
"Add not to my dire diſtreſs;
"You of my foul murders boaſting,
"Heavier horrors on me preſs.

"From your own crimes ſeek ablution
"Aim not at your country's life;
"Prophane no more the Conſtitution,
"Ceaſe to foment civil ſtrife.

"Straight to Congreſs-Hall repairing
"Your diſſembled mania end,
"And your treaſons paſt forſwearing
"Stand forth each his country's friend."

It is very common, to hear the Aurora, eulogized as a paper ſupported with wit, genius and induſtry. As theſe eulogies proceed for the moſt part from perſons who have felt themſelve ſtung by the abuſe of the mad and malignant ideots who conduct it, I cannot but ſet this down on the ſcore of affectation.

Take the following paragraph from the Aurora as a ſpecimen of the works of theſe men of genius.

"The diſcuſſions in the houſe of repreſentatives have thrown much light on the tranſactions concerning the UNFORTUNATE Jonathan Robbins. There are certain facts, however, which have recently come to light of that unfortunate man ſuch as will create aſtoniſhment. We are poſſeſſed of the facts, but muſt withhold them until ſuch time, as the facts are placed on ſuch ground, as neither diſtance, wilful omiſſion, or implicit confidence in the aſſertions of Britiſh captains, can invalidate nor pervert them—it is to be regretted that theſe facts not ſooner diſcovered or more valued by thoſe who were acquainted with them."

This is a paragraph ſuch as a fool would write, and ſuch as Duane writes, who never he is urged by the enlivening influence of GIN to write at all.

Hic niger eſt; hunc tu Romane, caveto.

Fataliſt politicians, yielding themſelves up to a belief in the violent probability of the Election of Mr. Jefferſon, are conſoled with the perſuaſion of the Moſſems, that "God from all Eternity decreed it." Thus a conviction that an acknowledged evil impends, effects no uſeful purpoſe in their minds; it is only bringing the miſchief nearer to their inſpection, whereupon they find this black not to be ſo very black.

THE JACOBIN.

I am a hearty Jacobin,
Who own no God; and dread no ſin,
Ready to daſh through thick and thin
For Freedom:

And when the Teachers of Chalk Farm
Gave Miniſters ſo much alarm,
And preach'd that Kings did only harm,
I fee'd 'em.

By Bedford's cut I've trimm'd my locks,
And coal-black is my knowledge-box,
Callous to all, except hard knocks
Of thumpers;

My eye a noble fierceneſs boaſts
My voice as hollow as a Ghoſt's
My throat oft waſh'd by Factious Toaſts
In bumpers.

Whatever is in France, is right;
Terror and blood are my delight;
Parties with us do not excite
Enough rage.

Our boaſted Laws I hate and curſe,
Bad from the firſt, by age grown worſe,
I pant and ſigh for univerſ-*
al ſuffrage.

Prieſtley I love, adore Horne Tooke
With pride on Jones and Thelwall look,
And hope that they, by hook or crook,
Will proſper.

But they deſerve the worſt of ills,
And all th' abuſe of all our quills,
Who form'd of ſtrong and gagging Bills
A croſs pair.

Extinct ſince then each Speaker's fire,
And ſilent every daring Lyre†
Dum-founded they whom I would hire
To lecture.

Tied up, alas! is every tongue
On which conviction nightly hung.‡
And Thelwall looks, tho' yet but young,
A Spectre.

B. O. P.

* This diviſion of the word, is in the true ſpirit of the Engliſh as well as the ancient Sapphic. See the counter-ſcuffle, counter rat, and other poems in this ſtyle.

† There is a doubt whether this word ſhould not have been written liar.

‡ Theſe words, of conviction and hanging, have ſo ominous a ſound, it is rather odd they were choſen.

A perſon lately handed me a paper ſtating a variety of vexations, anxieties and loſſes, ſuſtained by him, in conſequence of the laxity of the Poſt Office Eſtabliſhment. Although I am well ſatisfied that abundant ground for ſuch complaints has for a long time exiſted, I was deterred from publiſhing the ſtatement by its improper reflections upon the head of that department. The ſituation of this officer is a cruel one;—placed at the head of an eſtabliſhment overrun with errors and abuſes, of the moſt flagitious nature, he ſtands a butt for the imputations of every man who ſuffers by the abuſes which prevail, while he is wholly without adequate powers to reform them. The numerous delays, loſſes and robberies which have occurred in the Poſt Offices, during the laſt twelvemonths, call loudly for ſome efficient legiſlative proviſions, which may protect ſociety from ſuch depredations in future, and reſtore confidence and ſecurity to a medium of communication, ſo indiſpenſable to many, and ſo convenient to all.

To effect ſo deſirable an object, would be neither difficult nor expenſive. The characters and principles of Poſt-Maſters, preſent themſelves as points of main regard. While Poſt Offices are filled by foreigners, and foreigners of democratic principles too, it cannot be matter of wonder that letters are loſt or miſlaid. Such is unfortunately the caſe in many inſtances. An Iriſhman, lazy and inſolent, with a troop of Iriſh ſervants ſtill more lazy and more inſolent, will, tho' no loſſes occur, create delays and vexations to the public, that will be intolerable. In this particular, there is ample room for reform.—Until ſome national ſyſtem is applied to the repair and preſervation of highways, the arrival of mails will continue to be attended with that vexatious irregularity, which at preſent deſtroys more than half the utility of the Poſt Office Eſtabliſhment.

However improper the characters of many of the perſons employed in Poſt Offices muſt unavoidably be, from the impoſſibility of their being known to the officer who appoints them, ſtill it is not probably in the offices, that letters are moſt frequently intercepted. Any perſon who has travelled with a Mail, in this country, muſt have had abundant opportunity of obſerving the careleſſneſs of thoſe to whom it is entruſted. It is expoſed to the weather, to loſs on the road, and to plunder in taverns. On ſome routes indeed, great improvements in the mode of conveyance have been made, but generally, the hazards encountered by every mail, leave us little cauſe of ſurpriſe at the robberies which take place, and beſpeak either the ſingular honeſty of the country, or the ſingular idleneſs or ignorance of its robbers. A guard ought certainly to be appointed to each of the great Mails on the main line.

Extract of a Letter.

"This week there was a large meeting here, of the people falſely called Republicans, in order to fix a ticket for the next election; when it was unanimouſly agreed that Mr. Jefferſon ſhould be Preſident of the General Government, and Mr. Munroe of Virginia, Vice Preſident. A letter from Virginia informs me that it is agreed by all the Jacobins in the Union, to vote for thoſe who will chooſe theſe two men, and are in high ſpirits from a confidence that they will both be carried. Should it be the caſe, as they are both firmly attached to the French, and both Infidels, I think we may date the overthrow of theſe States from that time.

"From every quarter, there appears at preſent a gloomy and diſmal aſpect. As am an old man, I probably shall finish my course here. But were I a young man, I surely should incline to remove to some part of the British Dominions. It appears to me that nothing can save us, except an interposition of the Divine Ruler in our favor: But the flag of defiance held out against Heaven, by the mass of the people in these States, in regard both of sentiment and conduct, seems to render such an interposition of Divine Providence highly improbable."

[In spite of the contradiction of some, who with the Panglos of Voltaire, occupy their whole ingenuity in reconciling disasters with their contraries, and in spite of the fulminations of others, who think it culpable to foresee dangers, highly criminal to foretel them, high treason to flee from them, I must needs think this old Gentleman's alarms but too well grounded, his apprehensions founded on high probability:]

COMMUNICATION.

A correspondent exclaims, lamentable indeed has the situation of our America become! A foreigner by education, if not by birth, acknowledging himself to have remained in the service of a foreign power until expelled from its dominions, attached to our country neither by the ties of patriotism, connection nor interest, with a character known only by the infamy with which it is blackened, has long been suffered to calumniate the measures of our government, to traduce the individuals of whom it is composed, and to be one of the great engines for carrying into effect the plan which has been so long, so systematically and so nefariously pursued to prostrate the constitution and the laws, and to surrender our independence to France. When at last a feeble attempt is made to curb and punish him, he boldly bids defiance to the highest court of judicature in our country, audaciously declares his resolution to disregard its authority, and, as the reason of his conduct, gives the opinions of men, who, like himself, are foreigners, with no more interest in the welfare of America, with no more disposition to promote its prosperity, whose characters are not less exceptionable, and whose ultimate designs are more dangerous and wicked, though less plain and fathomable. These opinions are written in a style the most insolent and contemptuous; the advice to resist the authority of the Senate is as plainly to be perceived as it is cautiously expressed; the resistance actually takes place, and that body, as though awed by the boldness of such a reptile as Duane, finds it necessary to take time to collect their scattered senses to reanimate their drooping courage, before they can resolve to enforce their constitutional right. If the Senate has no jurisdiction over the offence they have surely gone too far; if they have jurisdiction, it required no time to discover how they ought to support it. While the branches of our government continue to display a spirit so irresolute and timid, its friends will neither have the disposition nor the power to maintain it.

Mr. Hartley presented a petition of Elizabeth Jameson, praying compensation for services rendered the United States by her deceased husband—Referred to the Committee of Claims.

Mr. Sheafe presented a memorial of the board of health of the town of Portsmouth, state of New-Hampshire, praying the adoption of a general law to guard against the introduction of the plague and other infectious diseases—Referred to the Committee of Commerce and Manufactures.

Mr Christie presented a petition of the inhabitants of Harford county, state of Maryland, praying the removal of the post-office at Harford town to the town of Abington—Referred to the Post-master General.

Mr. Harrison presented a petition of the inhabitants of the Illinois country, praying a division of the North Western Territory—which was referred to the committee of the whole house to whom was referred a bill for that purpose.

On motion of Mr. Waln, the petition of John Baptist Verdier, heretofore presented, was referred to the Committee of Claims.

Mr. Harper brought in a bill making appropriations for the support of government for the year 1800—which was committed for Monday next.

Mr. D. Foster, from the Committee of Claims, made an unfavourable report on the petition of James Bell, in which the house concurred.

The house again resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the bill for the better regulation and establishment of the courts of the United States; and Mr. Gallatin's motion to strike out the fifth section, being under consideration, Mr. Bird spoke against it—and was followed by Mr. Gallatin, in favour of the motion.

Mr. Harper, after entering into a defence of the principle contained in the section, requested the chairman to state, whether, if the section were stricken out, it would be in order for the committee who reported the bill to introduce the system in a separate bill—and having received an answer in the affirmative, moved to strike out the fifth and sixth sections—which was carried.

Mr. Nicholas then moved to strike out the seventh section, in order to ascertain the disposition of the house with respect to a system of this kind—and entered into a lengthy discussion on the subject—He was followed by Mr. Harper, against the motion, and Messrs. S. Smith and Gallatin in favour of it.

The committee then rose, and obtained leave to sit again—And the house adjourned.

ROWLETT'S

Tables of Discount or Interest,
On every dollar (without exception)

From one to two thousand; thence on every ten, fifty, and five hundred, to five thousand, from one day to sixty-four days inclusive, at six per cent. with notes for 5, 7 and 8 per cent, &c. &c. &c.

The work is dedicated, by permission, to the President and Directors of the Bank of North America, and received in the first twelve days the patronage of JOHN ADAMS, President of the United States; of THOMAS JEFFERSON, Vice President of the United States and President of the Senate; of two-thirds of the Senators and Members of the House of Representatives of the United States; and of the Presidents and Directors of the different Banks unanimously, &c.—a list of the whole is printed and attached to the proposals.

It is evident that the work will be no trumpery catch-penny-thing; for I do assure the public, that the price of it is reduced very near one-half, according to the usual rate at which books sell; and it is my full determination to render it, in point of SUBJECT MATTER, a valuable acquisition.

With respect to the accuracy of the Tables, too much cannot be said, and I pledge myself that a PREMIUM of not less than ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS shall be offered to the first person who shall inform me of a single error of one cent, according to the principle acted upon.

To do away all doubts with respect to the expences of the undertaking, I do most solemnly declare that they will amount to very near FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS, and perhaps more, independent of any remuneration for my own trouble in the arduous business, and the great expence already incurred for specimens, proposals, advertisements, hand-bills, &c. &c.

I do therefore trust with confidence, that gentlemen will continue to come forward with that public spirit and generosity which characterize the nation, and support the work by subscribing to it without hesitation: otherwise it cannot be published, and I must sit down to reflect upon a CONSIDERABLE LOSS.

And am, with profound respect,
Gentlemen,
Your obedient humble servant,
JOHN ROWLETT,
Accomptant, Bank North America.

Postscript.—Gentlemen are respectfully invited to see Specimens of the Tables, &c. exhibited at the City-tavern, Hardy's Hotel, Francis's Hotel, the Indian Queen, Dudwoody's tavern, the Franklin Head and at the George; and please be referred to the other advertisements which appear every day in some one of the newspapers.

Subscribers are to pay nothing until the book is delivered rigorously conformable to all stipulations.

Copy right secured according to act of Congress.

FOR SALE,

A VALUABLE TRACT OF

LAND,

LYING on the Potomac River, county of Northumberland, state of Virginia, containing about 1400 acres—its situation is equal to any other in the Northern Neck, remarkable for every kind of wild fowl, oysters, fish and crab, and none better for health. It is about the same distance from Baltimore, Alexandria and Norfolk, and not more than one days sail from either. There are three improved plantations with dwelling houses, the one known by the name of Exeter Lodge, formerly the residence of col. John Gordon, is an elegant two story brick house, with four rooms on a floor, and a passage fifteen feet wide.

The other two are commodious and conveniently fitted, with good and suitable out houses, at one of which John Murphy, Esq. (now of Westmoreland county) lived several years; on this farm there is a good grist mill, with water sufficient to turn any number of stones; also convenient store houses and granaries on a public road, well situated for a country store. On each of those places there are fine apple and peach orchards. The greater proportion of the land is of the first quality, and near the half of the whole heavily timbered. The terms may be known by applying to Wm. P. Tebbs Baltimore, Southee G. Tebbs, esq. of Richmond county, Virginia, or to Thomas Morgatroyd and Sons, Philadelphia.

TERMS
Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,
FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE
JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,
From the commencement
Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,
INCLUDING
The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat type, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages, neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in size, paper, and binding, will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscribers become possessed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to subscribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publisher does not intend to print manmore than the number subscribed for, a considerable rise on the price may be expected to non-subscribers.

Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subscribers will have it at their option, either to subscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessness, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in those rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

"The MEMORIAL of the Subscribers, Citizens, &c. of Philadelphia,

"Respectfully sheweth,

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed prosecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.

Centre Square, Febeuary 5, 1800.

IN compliance with the instructions of the Committee for watering the city, and with my own inclinations, every possible admittance and information has been given to those citizens who have visited the Works during their progress. The Engines are now arrived, and are immediately to be put up, and it is hoped that it will be thought reasonable and just, both to the Public, and to the Contractor for the Engines, that the workmen should not be interrupted. As a very few months will fully gratify the curiosity of the citizens, by shewing them the Engines in full operation, a temporary exclusion of all visitors from the Engine houses cannot appear improper.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That the territory shall have a perpetual lieu on every tract of land add every part thereof, for the amount of all taxes, and 10 per centum interest thereon, from the first day of September; and no alienation of lands belonging to any person, or neglect in entering or listing the same, shall effect the claim or lieu of this territory, until the taxes and interest thereof due from such person, are paid.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That the territorial auditor and the clerk of the peace of each county respectively, shall keep a book for the purpose of entering lands of non residents in manner and form hereinafter directed. All non residents shall enter their lands with the auditor, or with the clerk of the peace of the country in which the land lies, on or before the first day of July, who shall administer an oath to the person delivering such list, or by any other means procure satisfactory information for the purpose of ascertaining the quality of such land, placing it in its proper class, under the name of the county in which it lies; and every non resident shall enter his or her land, agreeably to the rules and regulation of this act, as in case of residents. All taxes on lands, listed by the commissioner, and returned to the clerk as aforesaid, shall be paid, with interest thereon, to the sheriff or collector, as the case may be. And the taxes on all lands, listed by the auditor (or by the clerks of the peace and certified to the auditor) with the interest that may be due thereon, shall be paid to the territorial treasurer or to the sheriff or collector of the proper county, but the treasurer shall not receive from the non resident, any taxes, unless such non resident pay the same before the first day of August, annually, nor until such non resident shall produce to him, a certificate from the auditor or the clerk of the peace respectively, of the quality of the land, for which he or she is about to pay the tax, with the amount due thereon, which certificate shall be, by the treasurer, filed in his office. The auditor of the territory and the clerk of the peace of the several counties respectively, shall keep books of transfers; and every non resident, who has entered his or her lands, in manner aforesaid, may, on the transferring the same or any part thereof to any other person or persons, have the alteration made with the auditor or clerk of the peace respectively, and charged to the person or persons to whom transferred, and such person shall be chargable with the tax of such land or lands hereafter; and each person having the alteration made, shall pay to the auditor or clerk of the peace respectively, twenty-five cents, to his own use. And it shall be the further duty of the auditor, in the month of August, yearly and every year, to transmit to the clerks of the peace of the several counties respectively, a certified extract of all lands entered in his office, or alterations therein made in the preceding year, noting thereon the tracts of land on which the taxes have been paid into the territorial treasury. Provided always, That it shall be the duty of the several clerks of the peace, upon receiving from the auditor, a list of the non residents' lands entered in his office, to make diligent search and enquiry of the non residents' lands lying in each of their respective counties; and after comparing the said auditorial list with the list of non residents' lands entered in his office, shall proceed to list all the residue of the lands belonging to non-resideats not before listed, noting the quantity and quality of the several tracts of land, so by him discovered and not before entered, and such as he cannot with certainty ascertain the quality of, he shall enter as second rate; and shall make out and transmit one copy to the territorial auditor, and a second copy of such list the clerk shall deliver to the sheriff or collector of the proper county, to govern him in collecting the taxes due thereon, as in other cases of non residents' lands.

Sec. 13 And be it further enacted, That the sheriff or collector shall be authorised to sell so much of each tract of land charged with taxes, as will discharge the amount thereof, with costs: Provided goods and chattels cannot be found thereon to the amount. And the sheriff or collector in that case, shall advertise the time and place of sale one month, at the door of the court-house, and also, at four other public places in his county; and if the person claiming the land does not pay the amount on or before the expiration of the time, the sheriff or collector shall proceed to sell; after such sale, the sheriff or collector shall deliver to the purchaser a certificate of the quantity of land sold, describing therein the tract that was charged with the tax, and the end or side from which the quantity sold was taken, which shall always be laid off as nearly in a square as the situation will admit of: And the surveyor of the county, on the receipt of such certificate, shall by himself or deputy proceed to survey the quantity sold as aforesaid, agreeably to the said certificate, and charge the purchaser with the expence of the same. The surveyor or his deputy as the case may be, shall give notice to the former owner, if in the county, or his agent, if any he has therein, of the day on which the survey is to be made: And upon the plat and certificate of survey being presented to the sheriff or collector, it shall be his duty to convey the same to the purchaser by deed, in due form of law executed, which conveyance shall vest in the purchaser all the right, title and interest of the proprietor; and in confideration of law shall also vest the possession of the land in the purchaser: Provided always, that nothing therein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to bar the right or equity of redemption, which any infant, person non compos mentis, or in captivity, may have the land so sold, provided the taxes and charges thereon, with interest, and an equitable compensation for improvements thereon made, be rendered within one year after such disability be removed.

Sec. 14. And be it further enacted, That when any tract of land, or part thereof, is not sold upon being exposed, and the tax on the same not paid, it shall be the duty of the sheriff or collector to advertise and expose the same to sale in like manner, as to time and place as aforesaid, at every court of quarter sessions, until the land be sold or the tax be paid thereon; and no sheriff or collector, or their deputies, shall directly or indirectly, purchase any land that shall be exposed to sale for the payment of taxes.

Sec. 16. And be it further enacted, That when any non-resident fails to pay to the treasurer the tax and interest due on any tract of land, on or before the said month of August annually, the auditor shall, at the same time when he transmits to the several clerks of the counties the amount of lands entered in his office, certify to the several sheriffs or collectors, as the case may be, such failure of payment, stating particularly the amount of the taxes due thereon; and also at the same time advertise the same in one of the Gazettes of this territory, for four weeks successively; whereupon the sheriff or collector shall, forthwith after receiving such list, proceed to advertise on the court house door of his proper county, the said tracts of lands on which the tax is due, stating the amount thereof, and that he shall proceed to make sale of the same to satisfy said taxes, unless the same shall be paid on or before the first Monday in November, or so much thereof as will pay the taxes and expences attending the sale; and the said sheriff or collector shall advertise the same in four different public places within the county, and if the amount of taxes is not paid, on or before the time mentioned, the sheriff or collector shall proceed to sell each tract, or so much thereof as will amount to the taxes and interest, with legal costs: and when any tract, or part thereof be sold, the sheriff or collector shall proceed in the same manner to have the same conveyed to the purchaser as is directed in case of residents; and it shall not be lawful for the sheriff or collector, or their deputies, directly or indirectly, to purchase any land sold under this section.

Sec. 17. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the territorial auditor to publish such extracts from this law, as relates to the lands of non-residents, in one newspaper within this territory; and also, in one newspaper at the seat of the general government, and at the city of Richmond in Virginia; and the town of Boston in Massachusetts; and the city of Hartford in Connecticut, for the term of six weeks, to commence on the first week in February next, and the expences thereof shall be defrayed out of the territorial treasury.
